

100 Yard Rifle League Rules

1. Safety first (bolts open when not shooting).
2. 3 minute sight in period (unlimited sighters).
3. 6 minute time limit for each Record Target.
4. No one piece rifle rests are authorized. Must use a two piece rest, front and rear bags, or a bipod.
5. Highest points will be deducted for extra shots on record target.
6. Best edge scoring ie: If you just touch the outside edge of the ten ring you will be awarded 10 points.
7. Any shots that hit record target will count as a record shot with the exception of a crossfire.
8. In the event of a crossfire on your target immediately notify the Range Safety Officer and he will verify the problem and score appropriately. If you knowingly crossfired on another shooters target complete your relay and inform the Range Safety Officer immediately upon ceasefire.
9. If you shoot a larger target than your class of rifle there will be a 2 point deduction per target.
10. If there is a tie for score the last match of the season there is a tiebreaker rule. The shooter with the smallest group on the last target (measured center to center) will win the tie.
11. Non-factory (aftermarket) barreled rifles are Custom/Modified class regardless of muzzle diameter.
12. If your rifle has a factory barrel with a muzzle diameter of .7 inches or under it is considered a factory sporter rifle.
13. Muzzle diameter over .7 inches is a factory heavy barrel.
14. Cooper and Kimber rifles must shoot the Custom/Modified class as they are fitted with premium match grade barrels and chambered to minimum specs with match grade reamers.
15. Any stock with a flat bottom forearm or any, modifications, devices or alterations to make the forearm flat bottom must be shot in the Custom/Modified class.
16. No hanging clips or any other object to weight the bottom of the target.
17. All 8 League Matches must be completed by 27 January 2019.

18. Once your first League Match shot is fired you must complete the match.
If you elect to stop shooting for any reason you cannot come back and make up that match another time. NO EXCEPTIONS.
